YORKSHIRE POST call a more beautifully played or more thoughtfully conducted disc of Grieg's music for string orchestra. The young Norwegian, Eivind Aadland, draws the most elegant and refined performances from Cologne's WDR Symphony, the silky smoothness of Two Elegiac Melodies and Two Melodies, contrasting with the vivacity and joyful account of the ever-popular Holberg Suite. The disc closes with the sad Nordic Melody, and the rustic Cow-Call and Peasant Dance. Fine for all CD players, it is in stunning surround sound.
