This CD showcases Jeroen Berwaerts' musical versatility on several levels: he developed the concept of this CD, performs as a trumpet soloist and jazz vocalist and directs the ensemble. Defying genre boundaries, spirituals and spiritual music by Takemitsu, Gabrieli, Monteverdi, Gershwin and Ellington are combined, creating a new harmony.

This CD showcases Jeroen Berwaerts' musical versatility on several levels: he developed the concept of this CD, performs as a trumpet soloist and jazz vocalist and directs the ensemble. Jeroen Berwaerts and Salaputia Brass prove congenial partners on the same wavelength.

The Belgian musician does not believe in genre boundaries. He performs early music equally naturally as he does new music or jazz. No matter how diverse the musical styles, Berwaerts always looks for, and finds, one element in particular – a soulful profundity. „Signals from Heaven“ combines spirituals and spiritual music by Takemitsu, Gabrieli, Monteverdi, Gershwin and Ellington. Historically, stylistically and geographically speaking, these musical styles could hardly be further apart. Listening carefully, however, it becomes apparent how close they can be. Defying the confines of epochs, continents and genres, they form a new harmony.

This search for a soulful profundity in music unites all participating artists, as well as the aim of connecting people through music. Jeroen Berwaerts' concept does not represent „crossover“ but a combination of voices which have something to say to one another. And they do – the concept is audibly successful.
